"The owners wanted a home that was modern and elegant yet comfortable, with open-plan living for entertaining friends and family. We created an eclectic, opulent interior with the unmistakable glamour of an exclusive luxury hotel. Starting with a clean monochromatic colour palette, we amplified the natural light, with the strategic placement of large mirrors throughout the house dramatically enhancing the sense of space. Rich finishes and furnishings with elements such as corbels, wall mouldings, ornate frames, heavy drapes and gold accessories contribute to the atmosphere, injecting warmth and textural interest. Our focus on the clients' vision, preferences and lifestyle was paramount during each stage of the project in order to satisfy their needs and reflect their personalities in a unified and cohesive design."
