

Interior by MASCHERONI, www.mascheroni.com.au

VELVET UNDERGROUND

From fashion to interiors – 1970s-style colour palettes, materials and designs are back in a big way. For winter, look to the popular seventies material of velvet and watch how your interior instantly turns into a luxurious and glamorous living area that Bianca Jagger, Halston and Andy Warhol would feel right at home in.

Photo: Sarah N. Wheeler, Helen Knight, Chaz Photography, The White Company

1. Washed velvet cushion covers in Claret and Peacock, $49, Pottery Barn. 2. Bottega Veneta Pour Homme, from $115 (50ml). 3. Manhattan velvet stool, $476, Westcom Emporium. 4. Ultraplush Two Tone throw in grey, $39.95, Bambury. 5. Velvet Settee in indigo, $999, Ino Interiors. 6. Bond upholstered swivel office chair in velvet celestial blue, $799, West Elm.

1. Cotton velvet blanket in plum, $249.95, Bambury. 2. Palm Beach Collection x Flower Drum posy scented candle, $41.95. 3. Saville Row velvet ottoman, $495, Alliance Furniture Trading. 4. Metal frame upholstered chair in velvet celestial blue, from $899, West Elm. 5. Willow euro cushion in emerald, $34.95, Linen House. 6. Pierre Paulin chair, $3500, fentondefontenay. 7. Emery sofa in grey velvet, $3240, Eco Chic.